Berkeley engineering student which will include campus tours, hands-on activities, and lectures scaled to the abilities of high school students. Mini-University is open to all students, but we believe it would be especially beneficial to 9th, 10th, and 11th graders interested in a career in science, math, or engineering. This is an excellent program for helping students understand why math and science courses are essential and for introducing the students to the UC Berkeley campus environment. If you have any questions about this program, feel free to contact us through email at swe.miniu@gmail.com. Download an application from School loop or stop by the Career Center to pick up a copy. The registration deadline is March 31, 2010. Please email completed forms to swe.miniu@gmail.com or mail them to: Society of Women Engineers; 222 Bechtel Engineering Center, 1720; University of California Berkeley, CA 94720
